This remarkable picture shows Mahatma Gandhi, "Holy Man" and leader of India's seated at his "talki" or native spinning wheel. He was arrested early Monday morning after he had led his non-violence campaign for over six weeks. The spinning wheel plays a considerable part in his campaign, for he urges that Indians wear no imported clothing, but instead weave their own cloth. As an example to this end he works each day at his wheel despite his many appointments. He took his "talki" to jail with him and it is expected he will pursue his spinning there.

State Will Ask Delay in Trial Of Mrs. French

A motion for continuance of the trial of Peggy French, slayer of John S. Garmon, until May 15 will be offered by the state this morning when the case is called to trial before Superior Judge Virlyn B. Moore. The defense, headed by James A. Branch and William Schley Howard, late Monday afterenon stated that they would agree to the postponement.

The delay is made necessary, Assistant Solicitor-General John H. Hudson, who is directing the prosecution, said, because of the absence of J. M. Colley, lieutenant of the Southern Railway police, and Felton H. Webb, clerk in a downtown hardware store, who sold Mrs. French the weapon with which she killed Garmon in her East Ninth street home on the night of February 11.

Colley, a close friend and co-worker of Garmon, accompanied him to the vicinity of the French home on the night he was slain. Both he and Webb will be out of the city all week, Mr. Hudson said.

Judge Moore on granting the continuance likely will set the case before Judge G. H. Howard as the case of Walter C. Taylor, city clerk, accused of bribery, is set for Judge Moore's court for May 12 and will not be concluded by May 15.

Loss of Leg Results In Suit for $50,000

A suit seeking $50,000 damages for the loss of a leg was filed Monday in city court of Atlanta by G. P. Camp, 19, through his mother, Mrs. E. H. Camp, against the Georgia Power Company. The plaintiff alleges that he was hit by an outbound car at Lee street and Lakewood avenue on December 21 while crossing the tracks to board an inbound street car. His left leg was amputated between the knee and hip as a result of the accident, the petition alleges.

The plaintiff charges that he was under the street car for 30 minutes before the wheels were lifted off of him, and that he lost considerable blood as a result of this. The life-saving device on the street car was not in good order, the petitioner charges. The suit was filed by the law firm of Harwell, Fairman and Barrett.

Sale of Memorial

Sale of properties of the Stone Mountain Confederate Monumental Association, which include the master models, from eight to ten feet high, designed and executed by Augustus Lukeman, has been halted by an injunction granted by Judge John B. Hutcheson at the request of the association

The association set forth that there are creditors whose names are not mentioned in the fi. fa. and that if given time all debts would be satis-fied, it is believed.

It also was pointed out that the master models, which comprise the greater part of the assets levied on are of no commercial value to any one but the association.

This is the second time within a tew weeks that creditors have acted against the association. In the first instance the office furniture in Atlanta headquarters was sold by the sheriff and bought in by a friend of the Stone Mountain body.

> ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., May 5 .-(AP)-Although 20 negroes were held in jail here tonight for questioning in connection with the serious wounding ing of his female companion near here Saturday night, police expressed the belief that the two men guilty of the crimes were still at liberty.

"I feel that the negroes are either in this city or within a five-mile radius of the city," declared Chief of Police O. P. Hedgepeth tonight, "and when the crowds that have been milling about the jail since first news of the crime was received disappear and allow us to work unmolested I think allow us to work unmolested I think we will pick them up."

All day long a crowd of several hundred men stood in front of police headquarters awaiting reports. Telephone calls reporting suspicious negroes were received from Greenville, Scotland Neck, Elm City, Nashville, and neighboring towns. Blood hounds were put on the trail of a negro seen running across a field near Sharpsburg this morning and trailed him to a well where he was at work.

The negro explained that he had been late starting to work and had to run to be on time. Police put him in jail for safekeeping when a crowd

'Slightly Scarlet' Is Cameo Feature

"Slightly Scarlet," feature showing at the Cameo the first two days of this week, has everything that makes for gripping entertainment. Evelyn Brent and Clive Brook, at their dramatic, romantic best, hold you spell-bound through a series of dynamic situations, and surprising story twistbound through a series of dynamic situations and surprising story twists.

Evelyn Brent recalls her superb performance in "Interference," in which she also played opposite Clive Brook, as the woman who finds herself powerless in the grasp of a master thief. In her attempt to escape from this influence she turns to Brook, apparently a suave English gentleman. They fall in love. And then the surprise when she discovers who he really is. And his surprise when he uncovers her secret.

Eugene Pallette and Paul Lukas, well known players, are in the cast and give creditable performances.

$1,500,000 in Road Bids To Be Received

The state highway department this morning will receive bids on approximately $1,500,000 of highway projects. Announcement of the awards is expected to be made tomorrow after tabulation of the bids.

Several out-of-the-state bidders are expected to submit bids today, the highway board having recently removed restrictions on such bidders which made it necessary that they have built a road in Georgia within a few months of the time of the contracts. The rule of the department now is that any firm or individual whose credit is good and who has a record of successful road building in any state is acceptable.

Virtue Usually Leaves Until Prosperity Learns To Feel Less Important

-By Robert Quillen-The four causes and preservers of virtue are Jails, religion, pride and

Man is not virtuous by nature, but evil-which means that he is by nature inclined to do the things he ought not to do.

His natural tendencies long ago made trouble for him, and to prevent such trouble he invented standards of morality.

Neither precept nor practice has yet made these standards instictive. and he violates them until wise instructors or hard experiences teach him self-control.

The control of natural impulses is the hardest task in life, but it is the task most necessary in the development of decent manhood. And since the practice of virtue is so difficult and so necessary, and man's unsupported will is incapable of it, certain aids are provided by Providence, by human wisdom and by a beneficent nature.

Many who cannot be saved by any other influence are kept in paths of virtue by their fear of Jail.

Many more, claimed in their youth by a wholesome religion, practice virtue to escape punishment and win eternal reward—or, having learned sincerely to worship their Creator, gladly follow the way of virtue to please Him, as all men surrender their own way to win the approval of one they revere. Pride is the salvation of the high and mighty who have no fear of jail or acquaintance with religion.

As they are superior in other things, so they would be superior in virtue; and class pride prompts them to scorn the immorality that disnors men of a lower grade. Poverty saves those who have no fear of jail, or benefit of religion, or pride of class. They escape immorality because it costs money and because poverty keeps them at work.

Wealth now prompts the American to scorn law and feel superior to religion, but when he has grown accustomed to it and finds it no longer a sufficient proof of superiority he will return to virtue and claim it as the sign and symbol of his justly proud caste.

IS ON A PAR WITH THE FRONT SEAT

Long famous as "America's easiest riding motor car" the new Franklin introduces another remarkable comfort achievement. Now the rear seat compartment is as comfortable to ride in as the front. Here is an astonishing feature which is one more bit of evidence showing the progressiveness of Franklin engineers.

In addition to outstanding comfort, Franklin offers superiority in its amazing performance. Powered with an airplane-type engine-which has startled the world by FLYING AN AIRPLANE -this brilliant car has captured every major American road record.

As though riding in an airplane the road seems to level out before you. the distance becomes shorter as you smoothly glide along in the new Franklin. A quick advance to 80 miles an hour is no effort for this air-cooled engine—and it hardly seems like 50, so smoothly, quietly and comfortably you FLOAT along. Vibration and other high speed sensations are not part of Franklin's performance.

To see the beautiful Franklin-to drive itto experience its incomparable comfort and performance—its AIRPLANE FEEL—is to realize the great distance Franklin has progressed ahead of other cars. We invite you to drive the new Franklin.

Gertrude, her father's daughter by an earlier marriage, was with him now, when Casey and Mrs. Pringle came in. Gertrude was reading the second half of the evening paper, under the somewhat diffused light across the table, while Mr. Pringle read the first half, beneath the concentrated brilliance of the lamp. #### Mrs. M. T. Ramsey Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema.

"My hand began itching and burning and eczema broke out in little My hand began terning and burning and eccentarions out in little red pimples. It was so severe that I scratched and caused eruptions I could not put my hand in water or do my regular work, and it just kept spreading. The irritation was so bad that I could not sleep. "A friend advised Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I purchased a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They stopped the burning and itching after the first application, and after using two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. T. Ramsey, Rt. 1, Toccoa, Ga.

Registration for the democratic state primary September 10 closed Monday afternoon after large numbers Monday afternoon after large numbers of citizens had visited the Fulton county and DeKalb county courthouses. Under the law, no person is qualified to vote in the November 4 election unless he had paid taxes and registered at least six months before the election.

The six-month period expired Sunday, May 4, but officials ruled that registration Monday was legal, as the final date fell on the Sabbath. Only persons qualified to vote in the general election can participate in the democratic primary in September.

THIS NEW TOBACCO LEAF CIGAR HISTORY

It's mild, it's full bodied --For smoke tastes of today

Gone is the heavy, strong cigar of yesterday . . . for your cigar taste has changed. But don't let your taste for a smooth, mild cigar make you think that genuine cigar satisfaction is a thing of the past. It isn't. Cortez has discovered a new tobacco that makes a cigar cool and mild and at the same time full bodied and satisfying. The secret is a leaf arrived at after years of study and research and experiment. . . . A leaf that you find only in the new Cortez . . . its delicate flavor and fragrant aroma are further improved by subtle blending with other fine tobaccos-the best the world knows. But don't take my word for its superiority. Prove to yourself, at the nearest cigar stand, that something new and big has happened to cigars. Prices begin at a dime.

Peter pretended not to hear this. "I think Killy is very handsome!" replied Mrs. Killy is very handsome!" replied Mrs. Killy promptly. "I don't know of any one handsomer. And you know there is the old saying that 'Handsome is as handsome does.' Why Killy would no more think of staying away from home any longer than necessary to get enough to eat than he would of deserting me altogether. I can always depend on Killy. Yes, sir, I can always depend on him. I haven't much use for these mates that will not do their fair share of the work of bringing up a family."

Peter looked a bit sheepish, for you know, Peter leaves all the family care to little Mrs. Peter. So once more he changed the subject. "Which branch of the Hawk family do you belong to, Mrs. Killy?" he inquired. "The Falcon branch." replied Mrs. Killy promptly, and it was plain to see that she was very, very proud of it. "We are the smallest of the Falcons."

"Then that means that you are own cons."
"Then that means that you are own cousins to Killer the Duck Hawk, does it not?" said Peter.
Mrs. Killy nodded. "Yes," said she, and there was still pride in her voice. "Did you ever see such a wonderful flyer as Killer the Duck Hawk? The Falcon branch of the family are the masters of the air."

TAKE THE COOL GREEN ROAD to anywhere in vacation land

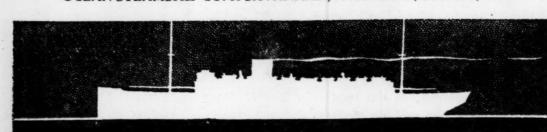

A summer night like the "Barcarole" from the "Tales of Hoffman"

HERE to this summer? Maine or King George's Canada? Atlantic City, Newport, or the biggest, liveliest summer resort in all the worldlittle old New York itself? This summer follow the Cool, Green Road to the Northern resort of your choice.

Instead of enduring a hot, boresome, overland journey, enjoy the delightful adventure of a sea voyage. Arrive at your destination, not travel-worn, but rested and refreshed by two or three gorgeous days of cool, bracing, salt sea ...r. And strange as it may seem-it actually costs less to go from your home to your Northern destination by Savannah Line than by the all-rail route.

Sail from Savannah any Monday, Wednesday, Friday or Sunday. Enjoy luxury and service equal to that of the finest transatlantic liners—a cuisine like that of the best hotels. A stateroom as comfortable as your own bedroom and equipped with hot and cold running water, electric fan, thermos jug, etc. Or at a moderate extra cost, a cabin de luxe with twin beds and private bath. Bridge and play deck games. Mingle in the gay, informal social life of shipboard, where everybody "belongs to the same country club." Moonlight dances on deck to the strains of the most unique ship's orchestra afloatselected musicians from leading Southern colleges. If you are going on to Boston you have the added enjoyment of a day's stopover in New York with the ship your hotel at no additional cost, then twenty-four hours more of cruising on summer seas.

Naturally, so delightful a way of going North results in full passenger lists. To avoid disappointment, why not make your reservations now for your summer vacation? For reservations or information apply any railroad ticket agent or, OCEAN STEAMSHIP CO. of SAVANNAH, 37 Bull Street, Savannah, Ga.

REGINALD S. FLEET,

The reports of the recent Junior League conference in New York which will be given at the meeting by Mrs. Clark Howell, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Foreman. Jr., are awaited with much interest by the members of the league. In the various exhibitions at the conference the Atlanta Junior League acquitted itself wonderfully well. The reports will embody an account of this phase of the conference.

Impoem of Martia Hougson Line exitted "Sea Fancy" was accepted by the magazine for this issue. It is as follows:

When the wind blows, I am fugitive; Hels lean, swift hounds give chase. Over the darkening beach I fly.

The sand stinging my face.

When the wind blows, I am fugitive; Hels lean, swift hounds give chase. Over the darkening beach I fly.

The sand stinging my face.

The sand stinging my face.

Only to hear them whimpering past me, Keen after other prey.

At the April meeting of the league a committee was formed to draft certain changes in the by-laws of the league. Mrs. Bolling Jones. Jr., was appointed the chairman; Mrs. Turner Jones, Mrs. Edwin Peeples and Mrs. John Knox composing the committe. A number of minor changes were suggested and one important change, the creation of new classes of members, making seven instead of five. The new classes to be voted upon at the May meeting are as follows: Active, inactive, sustaining, provisional, associate, temporary associate and non-resident. The associate members are to be those who are in good standing and have served actively for ten years. The by-laws committee will also recommend that the office of historian be created, to be an appointment of the president and to become a member of the executive board.

The May issue of the Junior League magazine, the "Foreign Number," was one of the most interesting and attractive numbers of the year. The articles and the pictures were unusually good. A small sketch sent from Paris by Lewis Gregg for this particular issue was used as the heading of an article about Paris. A review of "First Editions of Today and How to Tell Them" by Mrs. Lawrence Willet was published. A charming poem of Martha Hodgson Ellis entitled "Sea Fancy" was accepted by the magazine for this issue. It is as follows:

The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, and in the dining room the table had for its central decoration a silver basket holding quantities of orchid, purple and yellow iris. In the living room where the bridge tables were placed were vases of peonies, sweetpeas and snapdragons, which were placed at intervals about the room. Miss Hurt wore a lovely gown of black chiffon, made on tight lines, with a chiffon cape forming the sleeves. She wore a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Hurt was gowned in black chiffon modishly draped on the side. Miss Breitenbucher wore a lovely gown of varicolored flowered chiffon, made on long, graceful lines. Miss Bryan was gowned in pale blue chiffon, with high waistline and cape collar.

The guests included Miss Breitenbucher, Miss Bryan, Miss Susan Broyles, Miss Henrietta Mikell, Miss Mary Middleton, Miss Cornelia Orme, Miss Hannah Sterne, Miss Virginia Oliver, Miss Runa Erwin and her guest, Mrs. Alexander Love Wilson, of Quincy, Fla., and Emmett Mitchell, Colquitt Carter, William Fulghum, Nisbit Marye, Albert Howell, Jr., Marion Jackson, Jim Calhoun, Charles Harmon, George Breitenbucher, Jr., Douglas Robertson, Robert Sams, Harold Patterson and Sam Tupper.

"City Girl" is a story of wheat, of bitter, back-breaking toil on a Minnesota wheat farm and of the struggle of a city-bred girl to ingratirself with the calloused, narrow ate herself with the calloused, narrow farmer who becomes her father-in-law. Charles Farrell plays the son and husband. It is a part similar to several he has undertaken. He seems to have a penchant for the role of a willing, industrious country boy with a winning smile and impeccable character.

Mary Duncan is the city-bred wife. Though Farrell in reality does some very good bits, she is the soul of the

A Chinese vaudeville act with about a score of Celestial entertainers, entitled "Honorable Wu and Chinese Showboat," forms the piece de resistance for the stage end of the program. limmy Londos, the supple Greek, is here once more to entertain wrestling fans with an exhibition of the gentle art of pulling ligaments to the breaking point.

Jimmy is an oddity in the wrestling industry. He probably is the strongest, cleverest of the orthodox grapplers. He always is in perfect condition. Yet he has never won a world's title, of which there seem to be enough to go around.

Londos—"thees Jeem"—is the perennial challenger. He can and does pin all the lesser leg-benders. Every once in so often tackles whoever happens to be one of the champions at the time and loses the decision.

Some suspect that Thees Jeem can earn more money as the eternal challenger than he could wearing one of the crowns. Thees Jeem is a shrewd businessman as well as a fine athlete.

Tonight Londos will grapple with Paul Jones, the personable cowboy from Texas-and probably will win, although do not take that as a tip. It is just a guess.

Londos has lost only three matches here. Joe Stecher licked him twice, Dick Daviscourt once.

And in return Londos has given the wrestling bugs many a good show. One of the great exhibitions was the time Londos bested the Masked Marvel and uncovered Pete Sauer. It was a show that was worth anybody's time. The match tonight might develop into another Sauer match; the boys have it in them to tear up the ring.

SCHMELING GOOD COPY.

It is easy to see that Max Schmeling is going to be good copy for eastern sports pages as he goes through the training camp act preparing to fight Jack Sharkey June 12.

Schmeling bears no little resemblance to Jack Dempsey. Schmeling has an affable manner. And apparently Schmeling can think a little bit now and then.

His first interviews on landing in New York show what fans may expect later on when the ballyhoo begins beating in earnest. For instance:

St. For instance:

"I know you think Sharkey will have an advantage, because I have not fought for a year but I do not think that is so. In his last two bouts he has fought only six rounds. I am younger than Sharkey. He has a family, responsibilities, headaches, worries that I have not. I do not need so much training.

"Scott? Yes, I will fight Scott if he comes to the top. The catastrophe to Scott was good for me. He is a hard man to box. He likes to fall down too quickly. When I left here they said if I did not meet Scott I would have to start again from the bottom. I said, 'All right, I will start from the bottom. They told me Campolo would get the match and that he would be at the top. I said, 'Let him have the match.' He got it, but I am still at the top."

Such an interview is far superior to the usual grist when pugilistic chins are waving in conversation.

Brother Morgan Blake in Forsyth street is collecting a force of radio announcers and traffic cops to fight for dear old WSB and the privilege of calling the details of Atlanta home games to the tightwads.

This department is backed by the young businessmen of the left field bleacher section and the soda pop vendors in supporting the cause of the Southern league against broadcasting Cracker home games.

Brother Blake thought he scored a big point when Bill Mashburn, the matinee idol of the motorcycle squad, joined his colors.

But this department has none other than Lieutenant Jack Malcom, the beau sabreur of the pavement pounders, who enlisted today on the side of the anti-radio faction. Lieutenant Malcom writes:

"Don't let this Morgan Blake and Bill Mashburn get away with anything and start broadcasting Cracker home games again.

"If they did attendance would fall off at the park and the club would go out of business. Then WHERE COULD ALL US POLICEMEN GO IN THE AFTER-NOONS?

"If you can settle Morgan, I'll attend to Bill. Regards .- Jack."

Frankly this is the worst fight Brother Blake and I have had in years: It is getting worse and worse every day. We quit speaking away back yonder when night football was being discussed. No telling where this will lead to.

Manager Must Make Room for Roy Carlyle and Jack Knight.

By Ralph McGill.

Fifty-five ball players have been looked at by Johnny Dobbs this spring and Squire Dobbs' eyes are getting a little tired. Which is not unreasonable, considering some of the things able, considering some of the things he has bad to peer at.

Consequently the adjustments which will be made on the Cracker machine today will have something about them smacking of finality. Just as soon as Roy Carlyle, due to report today, and Jack Knight, are placed on the eligible list, the Cracker machine will stand pat for many, many months.

Don Brennan, portly pitcher, was returned to Newark Monday to make room for Johnny Jones. There was already room for Andy Messenger, the strikeout king of the Texas league in 1929. He got into the ball game Monday and lasted a very, very short time. Which was not unexpected. He has worked little in two weeks.

time. Which was not unexpected. He has worked little in two weeks.

Today John Dobbs must find room for Jack Knight and Carlyle. Two men must go. That's his big problem which is sure to cause no little worry before a decision is reached.

In looking at 55 ball players, some of whom were pretty terrible to look at, Johnny Dobbs has finally got what he believes will be a winning combination once he gets it to work.

The 1929 infield combination around the second sack is back at work with Johnny Jones and Jack Sheehan on the job. Or will be this week. Either Jimmy Johnston or Milt Stock will be retained as the utility infielder. Johnny Dobbs is overstocked with infielders and must cut away at least one.

BATTING ORDER.

There will be no wholesale changes in the batting order until Dobbs gets things adjusted. As soon as he has chiseled a place for Knight and Carlyle the Crackers will be put together and told to go out and win some ball games.

Carlyle is counted on to give the club some punch at the plate. Not one of the outfield trio has been hitting with anything approaching power. Roy Grimes has been the only man on the batting fist who has pounded the ball hard. Roy Carlyle, who once kited one over the right field fence at Spiller field, which is a mansized knock for any sort of knocker, golfer or no, is counted on heavily.

Si Rosenthal broke up the game in the eighth when he furnished transportation for Jack Sheehan to bring in the bacon. Sheehan singled and hot-footed it to third when the ball rolled between Andy Moore's dogs. Rosenthal clipped a single off Joe Pate who went to Caldwell's rescue and walked Cleve Barrett on purpose in order to make a double play possible.

Frank Walker put the Crackers back in the game but the Crackers probably wouldn't have been close enough to get back if Jack Sheehan hadn't throttled a Baron rally in the third with a marvelous stop of Moore's labeled hit through second with two on. Ray Caldwell went merrily on his way for six innings, crossfiring 18 of the first 19 men to face him right away from the plate. Rosenthal banged a single off him in the first and this was the only hit until the seventh. Langford banged a hit off Ray's glove in the seventh and Rosenthal walked.

It looked like Caldwell was out of danger with Grimes and Johnston.

KIEFER LOOKS GOOD.

Joe Kiefer looked good for two innings. He cut the Barons down in rotation and with one gone in the third walked Frank Gibson. Caldwell shanked the first hit off Kiefer into right and Gibson went to third. Sturdy singled to right, scoring Gibson, and Caldwell stopped at second. Bennett cut a single between third and short, with Johnston going toward second, and Caldwell tried to score. Langford winging him out at the plate. It certainly was some wild chance-taking on someone's part in trying to send Caldwell in on the hit. Andy Moore slapped a fast ball that looked headed through second, at least it was headed through second until Londos doesn't like. And who does? Plans 6 Weeks of Training Before Making Definite Decision.

By George A. Barton.

Copyright, 1930, for The Constitution and North American Newspaper Alliance.) ROCHESTER, Minn., May 5.— Jack Dempsey is in perfect physical condition. Whether he can withstand the rigors of a strenuous training campaign to fit him for a successful campaign to lit him for a successful comeback in the prize ring this summer is something else again, according to an exclusive statement which the writer obtained today from Dr. Louis Buie, of the Mayo clinic, who operated upon the former heavyweight champion last Monday.

Dempsey has recovered so rapidly Dempsey has recovered so rapidly from the operation that he was able to don his street clothes yesterday and have luncheon with several doctors, his booking agent, Jack Wall, of Chicago, and the writer. After luncheon, Jack went for an automobile ride with Dr. Buie, visiting among other places Dr. William Mayo's farm to see some blooded dogs in which Dempsey evinced much interest.

FEELS GREAT.

While he didn't exactly feel like donning the gloves for a workout yesterday, Jack was in excellent siprits and assured everybody that he was "feeling great." That Dempsey is in superb physical condition is borne out by the speedy manner in which he is recovering from an operation that while not serious is year, paining as recovering from an operation that while not serious, is very painful. Whereas, the average man usually is confined to bed for at least a week or ten days following an operation for hemorrhoids, Dempsey walked around briskly yesterday, only five days after the ordeal—indeed, he was so active that Dr. Buie had to advise him from time to time to ease up.

"Dempsey is making splendid progress toward recovery, and I am positive the operation will permanently cure a chronic ailment which has bothered him for several years," Dr. Buie told the writer. "I found Dempsey to be in superb physical condition and this is made very apparent by his rapid recovery. He is a remarkable physical specimen and it was interesting, indeed, to examine him. NO FAT.

"While operating upon Dempsey I discovered there were no fatty tissues under the surface as one finds in the average man between the ages of 30 and 40. Three Bouts Are on Georgian's List Starting May 8.

LONDON, England, May 5.—(Special.)—Don Shortland at Albert Hall, May 8; Pierre Charles in Paris, May 22; Phil Scott in an open air arena here June 2.

That's the new schedule of bouts arranged for Young Etribling, Georgia heavyweight fighter who has been here two weeks getting in shape for the campaign which, if successful, will make him undisputed champion of England and Europe.

A vaudeville engagement, in which Phil Scott is telling the home folks just how he was fouled by Jack Sharkey in Miami last winter, and failure of the scheduled bout with Roberto Roberti to go through made the change in dates necessary. The new arrangement, culminating with the Scott bout two nights before the historic English derby, is expected to be advantageous to the southerner. Derby week is one long holiday here and Promoter Jeff Dickson expects the Scott-Stribling affair to draw a record gate.

WELCOMED VICTORY.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—Little Bock had the Pelicans going today until the eighth inning, when Eichrodt hit what looked like a home run over the fence. The umpire called it a foul and squabbling resulted, which saw Tommy Taylor ousted from the game. A moment later Eichrodt knocked an undisputed homer with two on and another run came in to win for the Peis, 4-3.

Rockne Will Return Friday for Spring Grid Work at Notre Dame

FAMOUS COACH IS RECOVERING FROM AILMENT

Doctors Will Keep Him Under Observation Most of Summer.

By George A. Barton. ROCHESTER, Minn., May 5 .-(NANA) - Knute Rockne, famous football coach of Notre Dame, has so far recovered from thrombophlebitis, far recovered from thrombophlebitis, an ailment which has kept the "Miracle Man" of South Bend, Ind., inactive since last October, that Dr. C. J. Barborka, of the Mayo clinic, has decided that "Rock" can return to South Bend Friday and watch the final spring drills of his gridiron greats.

Thrombophlebitis, in case you don't know it, is the inflammation of the veins resulting from coagulation of plood in the vessels. Rockne will return to Rochester in June, however, and will remain there under observation during the greater part of the summer in order to safeard him against a recurrence of the trouble later on. "Rockne is making splendid progress and has so ar recovered that we feel it is safe to permit him to return to South Bend next Friday," Dr. Barborka told the writer today, "He will return to Rochester early in June, however, and will be kept under observation for two months, possibly, in order that he will be perfectly fit in every way to take active charge of his football squad next September."

Dr. Barborka confided to the writer that if Rockne had taken his advice last October when he examined the noted oridiron mentor at South Bend at the request of Mrs. Rockne, Knute would not have been forced to underich a long siege of illness as he this year.
TREATMENT URGED.

"I urged Rockne to come to Rochester for treatment at that time, but he was so wrapped up in his football team that he refused to heed my adam that he refused to need my acce. He just had to see his boys rough, he said, and he did so at a eat personal risk to himself.

siderable advancement in the aims of the department.

Some of the interesting observations in the foreword are:

"There is no state in the union that offers to the angler a greater variety of sport fishing than can be found in Georgia. Literally thousands of miles of splashing, swift, clear water rivers and creeks, wind their course around the picturesque mountain sides of north Georgia, and furnish an abundance of rainbow and brook trout; the larger streams and their tributaries of middle and south Georgia, which find their way to the Gulf of Mexico or the Atlantic, are teeming with bass, bream, perch and other species; and along Georgia's marvelous coast, where the rare climate the year round is unexcelled, there is a great diversity of thrilling salt water fishing for such species as Channel bass or red fish, school bass, winter and summer trout, drum, sheepshead, mackerel, croakers, Whiting, etc.

FEW RESTRICTIONS.

"Our commonwealth imposes on the fisherman in this state fewer restrictions than in most states, far more moderate regulations than in many states; and less of legal requirements than in probably any state in the union. It bids to its citizens, and to his friend from elsewhere, a cordial 'welcome' and asks of him little else than that he be 'a true sportsman,' have a mind for the happiness also of his fellowman, and to remember that a sportsmanlike conservation makes for the continuity of that happiness in the future years.

Smithies Play Russell. G. M. A. Meets Marist in Big Games.

By Roy White.

Atlanta's prep baseball teams will swing into action at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the fourth round of the second half of the league schedule with four games on the card. The most important of today's games is between Tech High and Russell, at East Point, and G. M. A. and Marist, at College Park. Other games include Boys' High and Commercial, at Kirkwood park, and University and Fulton, at Piedmont park.

Fulton, at Piedmont park.

Tech High is battling to retain its leadership of the league, while Fulton is trailing with one more game lost than the Smithies. Fulton should get by with University at Piedmont park and the game should produce a good southpaw hurling duel. Tucker, of U. S. B., and Norton, of Fulton, are the outstanding portside hurlers, with Norton having the advantage. In the past 5G innings Norton has struck out 7S batters and has been the sensation of the league this year. He was called from first base in an emergency and has proved his worth as a hurler. RUSSELL DANGEROUS.

RUSSELL DANGEROUS. Russell High is a dangerous team at any time and with Ellington and Gibson ready to shoot at the Smithies, Coach O'Rear has an excellent chance for a victory this afternoon. Russell's hitting has improved considerably in recent games.

morrow we will see how this b goes forward.

G. M. A. and Marist will have a merry battle at College Park. Both teams are tied with Boys' High and Russell for fourth place in the league standing. A victory for either team will mean much in the final rating of the teams at the end of the season. Commerce has proved the most in of the teams at the end of the season.

Commerce has proved the most in and out team of the year. The Typists stopped the Marist team twice after the Beanmen had trounced Boys' High and Tech High. Commercial defeated G. M. A. by an unusually large score and then fell by the wayside in games with Russell, Decatur and University.

As the season nears its end seven postponed games remain to be played. Decatur, G. M. A. and Marist each have three games, University two and Tech High and Russell one each, left. The season has about three more weeks to run with six playing dates left.

Several of the games were postpon-

Dempsey, by the way, weighs 210 at present, and looks the picture of health.

Several of the games were postponed because of bad weather early in the season and others were called off because of the annual government inspection at G. M. A.

One of the leading arguments now connected with the Sharkey-Schmeling embroglio, contest, or whatever it will turn into, concerns the

A number of rather smart insiders figure that Sharkey will be two Flashkamper. Mem. STOLEN BASES. to one. Others just as smart say that Schmeling is a good even money bet if he can prove that he is in fair condition, anything like approaching the form he showed against Risko and Paulino.

There have been fewer fights harder to figure in advance, since both will be uncertain quantities. Sharkey has always been an uncertain quantity. Schmeling is bound to be an uncertain quantity with his lack of experience and his long lay off. He might easily have been guided into a world's championship with proper handling. He had most of the qualities that make a champion. What he will have in June is just a guess. Sharkey is always a

It may be possible to get a much better line on Schmeling after he has been around for two weeks or longer. There will be no chance until he has settled down to a boxing grind and is ready to show what he has. I have a hunch the odds will be close to even money by the first week in June. If there is any favorite it will probably be Sharkey. He

The Best Crew.

When Yale beat Columbia on Saturday, Ed Leader proved again that he had another high class crew. Columbia still has a great chance at Poughkeepsie under Dick Glendon's coaching. Any crew fast enough to beat the Blue and White can row. Yale has no set up when the Blue meets Harvard this year. But any Yale opponent will have to keep on paddling the rest of the season to stop the crew that Leader will send into action. Here is a coach and a conditioner that belongs among the top file in sport—and you can name your own game from football to track in this con-nection. Leader has all the qualities that make a great coach, no matter what the game.

The Next World Series.

"I think you the all wet in naming the Athletics and Cubs for the next world series," writes L. G. H. "On just what grounds do you make

When in doubt we go back to first principles-to the element tals. The first elements of baseball, the first principles, are hitting and pitching. It is upon these grounds we figure the Athletics and Cubs as the two top choices. They have the harder hitting and the better pitching. Each club has at least four first class pitchers it can depend upon. Each club has the punch.

To summarize the situation, each club has pitchers who can keep the other side from making runs and the hitting strength that can get uns. This won't work out in every game. But it should work out in season's count. Possibly it won't. But as Hek once said—"The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong-but that is where

If you care to take the dope apart and inspect it carefully the Athletics and Cubs outrank the rest of the two circuits. They have the material and in Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy they have two leaders who can be counted on to do their share.

Schmeling's Condition.

So far as wind and stamina go Schmeling looks to be in as good condition as any 24-year-old athlete should be who has kept his training routine intact.

There will be no bother about his legs or about his general physical sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees money back if it does not end all Pile misery.—(adv.) fitness. From now on it will be a matter of timing and judging distance, a matter of rushing himself into fighting shape. This is another angle, entirely different from mere condition. 16-Letter Vandy

The opening was steady at a decline of 7 to 12 points in response to the easier Liverpool cables. There was some covering in the near months, but the demand was less active than recently and after some little irregularity the market showed increasing weakness under local, southern and Wall Street selling. Some selling by the southwest was reported on the decline which followed, supposedly reflecting an improvement in crop prospects as a result of recent rains, while houses with Wall Street connections were credited with selling on the unsettled ruling of the stock market.

Old crop positions held relatively steady, but July eased off to 16.03, making a net decline of 28 points. The new crop positions where relatively more active than recently and at the lowest showed net losses of 36 to 43 points, with the new December contract declining to 14.11 and March to 14.30. to 14.30. Offerings subsided at these figures, which brought in a renewal of covering in both old and new crop months and the highest prices of the day were reached on most positions during the last half hour. July sold up to 16.48, or 17 points net higher, and closed at 16.44, while the new crop recovered most of its earlier losses, selling within 4 to 9 points of Saturday's closing quotation.

At the close May was 10 points under July but 204 points above the new October. At one time during the morning July here was 50 points over July in the Liverpool market, which may have promoted some of the early selling. There was some complaint of dry weather in the eastern belt but further showers or rains were reported over Sunday in the southwest, and on the whole the weather details seemed to make a more favorable impression on sentiment than otherwise. Exports today 15,271, making 0,314,937 so far this season. Port receipts 7,0000

-but, in Business, her offspring are often the hurried results of Ignorance and Fear.

Successful Business shapes its progress on desirable action rather than necessary procedure. Most plans, or actions, become necessary only when the desirable thing to do has been overlooked, or too long delayed. And while stark necessity, fear of failure, or loss of prestige, often stirs the mental and physical forces of a business into "inventive" action; such action is probably only something competitors with vision and foresight have been doing all along—the desirable thing to do.

On this simple practice of knowing what is the desirable and doing it before it becomes a necessity-the new and modern Accounting is based. Detailed Audits, Budgeting, Standard Costs, Inventory Control, Uniform Systems for Associations and Trade Groups-are only some of its ripened fruits.

CURB PRICES BACK AND FILL TO SHOW SPOTTED GAINS AT SESSION'S END Noted Banker Retires On His 60th Birthday

> NEW YORK May 5.—(UN)—A, P. Giannini, founder of the Trans-america Corporation and the most colorful banking figure of his age, will retire from executive capacities in all his companies tomorrow—his sixtieth birthday—it was announced tonight. His retirement makes good his statement when in 1924 he turned over the presidency of the Bank of Italy to his successor—that he would step out of active office at 60.

Sound, Steady Development

Even its best and oldest friends have been surprised at the rapid rise of International Harvester in the automotive world. The gains in International Truck production and in International registration throughout the United States have been almost sensational.

There is nothing artificial or temporary in this success. It would, in fact, be hard to cite a better example of sound and steady development in American industry and business than this rise of International Trucks. The truck-building knowledge accumulated since 1904 has been apparent in each new year's output of Internationals. Constantly improving design, rigid quality standards, and a forward-looking service policy-all have contributed to the growing reputation. Today the rising preference for Internationals forms as reliable a gauge as you can get of truck values. The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and the proof of the truck comes out on the job. It is impossible to do what International trucks are doing without being good.

Come in and see this year's line-up of Speed and Heavy-Duty Models. They fit all hauling needs and we will be glad to demonstrate any of them.

International Trucks include the %-ton Special Delivery; the 1-ton Six-Speed Special; Speed Trucks, 114, 114, 2 and 3-ton; and Heavy-Duty Trucks to 5-ton.

Nearer came the shrill trumpeting of an elephant. Now, for the first time, La guessed the meaning of Tarzan's shrill scream—he had summoned Tantor. the elephant, to his rescue! La's brows contracted in a savage scowl. "You refuse La!" she cried. "Then die! The torch," she commanded, turning to the priest. Tarzan looked up into her face. "Tantor is coming," he said. "I thought that he "Tantor is coming," he said. "I thought that he would rescue me; but now I know from his voice that he will slay us all."

Tensely Tarzan listened, to make sure. "Tantor has gone mad," he cried, and La knew only too well that the ape-men had not exaggerated. "I cannot love you, La," said Tarzan in a low voice. not know why, for you are very beautiful. I could not go back and live in Opar-I who have the whole broad jungle to rove in. But I cannot see you die beneath the goring tusks of mad Tantor. Cut my bonds," he pleaded, "before it is too late and I may yet save you."

A little spiral of curling smoke rose from one corner of the pyre—the flames licked upward, crackling. La stood there like a beautiful statue of despair, gazing at Tarzan and the spreading flames. In a moment they would reach out and grasp him. From the forest came the sound of cracking limbs and crashing trees. Tantor was coming down upon them, a huge Juggernaut of the jungle. The priests were becoming uneasy. They cast apprehensive glances backward and then toward La.

"Fly!" she commanded them, and then she stooped and cut the bonds from her prisoner. In an instant Tarzan was upon the ground. The priests screamed out their rage and disappointment. with the torch took a menacing step toward La and the ape-man. "Traitor!" he shrieked at the woman. "For this you, too, shall die!" Raising his bludgeon he rushed upon the High Priestess; but Tarzan was there before her. Seizing the priest, he hurled the fellow far into the scattering crowd.
